

FUNK FUSION ACADEMY

Always fun... always exciting!

Last August, Conway welcomed a new restaurant to the downtown area which features free live, local music each night. Since then, JJ's Grill has been on a mission to bring Conway something unique for its dining experience. JJ's Grill offers a full menu full of Americana favorites such as Warm-Ups (appetizers), Green Thangs (salads), Wraps & Samaches (Sandwiches) and is Home to JJ's World Famous Cheeseburgers. And with live music from many of your local favorites such as Mayday by Midnight, Some Guy Named Robb, Mr. Lucky and so many more, JJ's Grill in Conway offers something different than other dining establishments. JJ's challenges itself to find and promote the extremely talented local and regional artists Arkansas has to offer, and there is NEVER a cover charge!

JJ's Grill not only offers delicious food and great service, but an exciting atmosphere and a chance to check out some incredible local acts.....Finally...Something local... Something live.

Some of the upcoming line-up includes: Mayday by Midnight, Some Guy Named Robb, Mr. Lucky, Brown Soul Shoes, Keith Nicholson, Barrett Baber, Ben Coulter, Jocko, Jamie Wolfe, Brian Ramsay, Happenstance, and many, many more. Music plays from 6:00-8:00 on Monday through Wednesday, and from 8:30-12:30ish on Thursday through Saturday. With free live music every Monday through Saturday night, there is plenty of local talent to check out!!!

Check it out at www.jjsgrill.com and find out who is playing tonight at JJ's Grill!!

Conway M.M.A.

Conway Martial Arts started in 2007 with a vision shared by two brothers, Joel and Jeremy Newton. With the rise in popularity of the UFC and other professional combat sport organizations, people began to flock to martial arts gyms, hoping to learn the skills they witnessed on television.

Opening the doors to Conway Martial Arts in 2007, the Newton brothers founded their gym on the core principles of traditional martial arts - respect, honor, discipline, and brutally hard work. Four years and three different locations later, Conway Martial Arts still holds these principles dear.

Currently the gym offers classes for adults in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, Kickboxing with a core foundation in Muay Thai, Capoeira and Tae Kwon Do. In addition to the four adult classes, CMA offers kids classes for children 5 and up in Tae Kwon Do and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu.

In addition to these core values, Conway Martial Arts is run as a family - we welcome new members as part of that family. We know that family is their for each other, and in a discipline that requires hard work and dedication, our family will help push you to reach your goals, whether they be to become a professional fighter, lose weight, learn self defense, improve your discipline and work ethic, or just to relieve some stress and have a great time.

Call us at 501-327-1662 to try out a free class and meet the family at Conway Martial Arts!

"It lift's your spirit, touches your soul, as long as you can stand, you'll dance."
